

The seal of Richland County, South Carolina, is a circular emblem. It features a central figure of a person, possibly a Native American, holding a bow and arrow. The words "RICHLAND COUNTY" are written in a circle around the top, and "SOUTH CAROLINA" is written around the bottom. There are also some smaller inscriptions and symbols within the seal.

Richland County
Planning & Development Services

LIGHTING
CERTIFICATION

Luminaires will meet all requirements of Section 26-177 of the Richland County Land Development Code.

Developer / Owner Signature

Lighting Authority Signature