

LEXINGTON/RICHLAND ALCOHOL AND DRUG ABUSE COUNCIL

The Council was established pursuant to ordinance number 439-77HR and 669-80HR. The Richland County Council appoints SIX MEMBERS, and the Lexington County Council appoints six members for THREE, THREE YEAR TERMS. LRADAC provides alcohol and drug abuse services to Lexington and Richland Counties. The services include a sixteen-bed detoxification center, outpatient services, including therapy to individuals, family members, and people interested in helping someone with a problem. It also offers education and prevention services to community groups, individuals and schools. The board membership should consist of a diverse mix of individuals including age, gender, race background expertise; a balance of those who are and are not in substance misuse recovery; and a passion for LRADAC’s service and mission. Meetings are held the 2nd Thursday of every month; however, there are not meetings in January and July. The meetings take place at 2711 Colonial Drive, Columbia, SC at 12:00pm, and last for about an hour.
