Detention Officers Wanted

Richland County's Alvin S. Glenn Detention Center is announcing new recruitment incentives.

Along with pay and bonuses, detention officers receive paid training, paid holidays and vacation days and full-time benefits, among other perks.

The job requires a high school diploma or GED equivalent, supplemented by completing required law enforcement coursework. Officers must obtain Basic Jail Officer certification from the S.C. Criminal Justice Academy within the first year of employment.

Applicants must have a valid state driver's license and be at least 21 years old. To apply online, visit the careers page on the Richland County website at richlandcountysc.gov/Home/Careers.
