Representative Kambrell Garvin is hosting a Town Hall Meeting, in District 77, on Monday, May 12, 2025 at Doko Manor, Blythewood, SC.

Columbia, SC. April 29, 2025. Representative Kambrell Garvin, House Member of the South Carolina General Assembly, District 77, is hosting a Town Hall Meeting on Monday, May 12, 2025. This forum is purposed to provide the community with information on services and developments that will impact the lives of the constituents of District 77 and South Carolina. Representative Garvin has invited representatives from The Medical University of South Carolina, Prisma Health, Richland County's Department of Economic Development, SC State Treasurer's Office, SC Office of Resilience, SC Department of Transportation and Scout Motors to give an overview and/or insight of ways they are partnering with local communities, along with any new developments within their entity.

The Town Hall will take place at Doko Manor, 100 Alvina Hagood Circle, Blythewood, South Carolina. The event will be from 6:00-7:30 pm. Representative Garvin is committed to ensuring residents in Richland County are informed of programs and/or services that will impact their lives. A question and answer session will follow to address community questions.

For more information, please contact Representative Kambrell Garvin at 803.212.6875.
