

Voter Surge Moves Tax Sale to New Location

The State Newspaper
Posted on October 28, 2008

The location of next week's Richland County delinquent-tax sale has been changed to Township Auditorium.

The sale Nov. 3 and 4 is being moved because of the number of absentee voters coming into the county administration building, where it usually is held.

The Township is in downtown Columbia at 1701 Taylor Street.

For additional details, see www.rcgov.us/treasurer.

Amid long voter lines, Treasurer Adams speaks with the press regarding moving the tax sale to an alternate location.